Celebration - Republic day

Republic day falls on 26th January every year. This is the day when the constitution of India came in force.

Flag hoisting is done on this day and then everyone sing our National Anthem. A parade is organized every year where there are participants from every state of the country. This parade is held on Rajpath in New Delhi.

Festival - Makar sankranti

Makar sankranti is celebrated on 14th of January every year. This festival is official end of winter season and the start of Spring season.

Kite festival is celebrated on this day. People fly kites on this day. A famous sweet "Til Gul" is prepared on this day. All the elders give Til Gul to the young ones and say "Til Gul Ghya Goad Goad Bola".

Festival - Lohri

Lohri is celebrated every year on 13th of January. It is a festival to worship fire and is majorly celebrated in north India in the state of Punjab.

Lohri celebrations are marked by traditional songs and dances. People dress up nicely on the long-awaited bonfire festival.

Lohri calls for family get-togethers and lavish dinners with sarson ka saag & makki ki roti. The day ends with prayers for a good harvest.

Festival - Pongal

Pongal is one of the most popular harvest festivals of South India, mainly of Tamil Nadu. Pongal falls in the mid-January every year and marks the auspicious beginning of Uttarayan.

Pongal festival lasts for four days. This four days long festival of Tamil Nadu is celebrated for showing gratitude to nature. T he literal meaning of Pongal is "spilling over" and it had been named so, because of the tradition of boiling rice in a pot until it starts overflowing. Other traditions of the celebration include drawing of Kolam, swinging & cooking of delicious Pongal.

I am a little aeroplane

I am a little aeroplane,
Now watch me fly!
Here are my instruments
From down low to up high.

First I get rewed up.
Then I can fly,
Lifting off the runway
Up into the sky!

Pat-a-cake

Pat-A-Cake, Pat-A-Cake, Baker's Man.
Bake Me A Cake As Fast As You Can;
Pat It And Prick It And Mark It With B,
Put It In The Oven For Baby And Me!

एक दो, एक दो बढ़ते कदम

एक दो, एक दो बढ़ते कदम
भारत माँ के बच्चे हम
एक दो, एक दो बढ़ते कदम
भारत माँ के बच्चे हम
नहीं रुकेंगे, नहीं झुकेंगे
आगे बढ़ते रहेंगे हम
नहीं रुकेंगे, नहीं झुकेंगे
आगे बढ़ते रहेंगे हम

The cap seller and the monkeys

Ram the cap seller was selling his caps under a tree in the market. In the afternoon when he was tired he decided to take some rest.

He sat under the tree and slept. After he woke up he saw that all his caps were missing. After searching for caps he saw many monkeys sitting on the tree wearing his caps.

To get the caps back from monkeys he threw stones at them. The monkeys also then threw stones at Ram. He then understood that monkeys are imitating him. So he threw the cap that he was wearing on the ground. As monkeys were imitating Ram they all threw the caps on the ground.

Ram then collected all the caps and started selling.

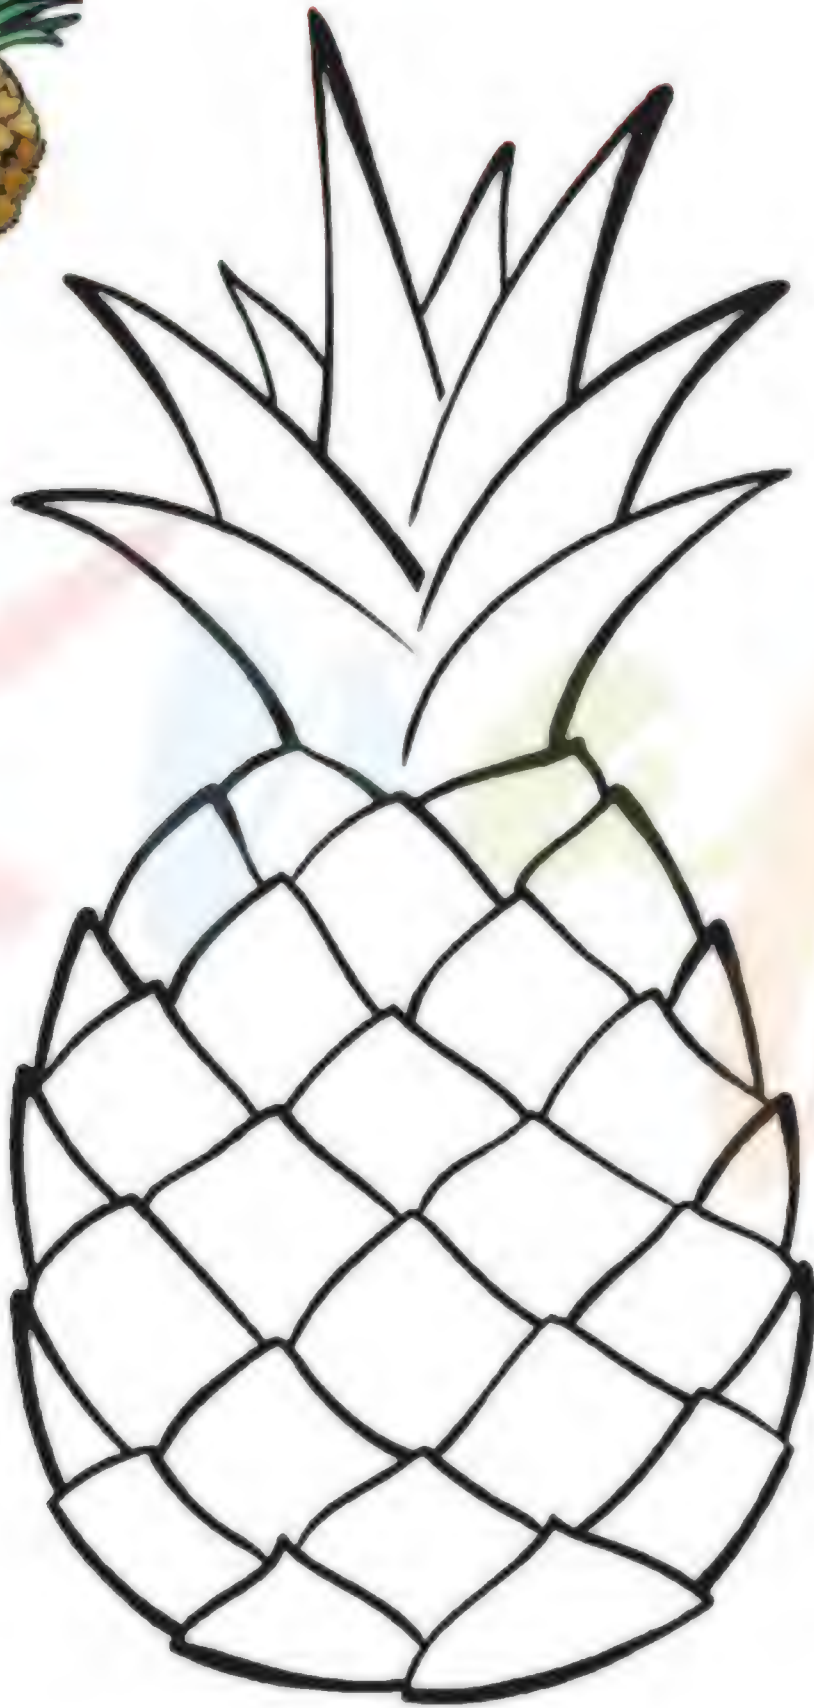

Moral of the story is:

Clever thinking can easily solve a problem.
